IX. ORGANIZATION OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE

The Secretary of State is charged, under the direction of the President, with the duties appertaining to correspondence with the public ministers and the consuls of the United States and with the representatives of foreign powers accredited to the United States, and to negotiations of whatever character relating to the foreign affairs of the United States. He is also the medium of correspondence between the President and the chief executives of the several States of the United States; he has the custody of the seal of the United States, and countersigns and affixes such seal to all treaties, Executive proclamations, to various commissions, and to warrants for the extradition of fugitives from justice. He is regarded as the first in rank among the members of the Cabinet. He is also the custodian of the treaties made with foreign States, and of the laws of the United States. He grants and issues passports, and exequaturs to foreign consuls in the United States are issued through his office. He publishes the laws and resolutions of Congress, amendments to the Constitution, and proclamations declaring the admission of new States into the Union.

XIII. TARIFF OF UNITED STATES CONSULAR FEES

[Revised to take effect November 1, 1906; amended by Executive orders and by act of Congress approved June 4, 1920]

Tariff of fees prescribed by order of the President to be charged by consular officers of the United States. All consular charges must be in strict accordance with this tariff and be collected in gold or its equivalent. No fee or compensation will be collected for any service not covered by this tariff.

The fees in this tariff are not prescribed for American vessels and seamen, because they are exempted by law from the payment of consular fees. Consular agents will make the fees in this tariff a basis of collection from the Treasury for services to such vessels. Foreign-built vessels, unregistered, owned by American citizens, and vessels documented under the laws of the Philippine Islands are not exempt from the payment of the fees prescribed herein.

Consular officers must require all fees to be paid in advance and before the stamps are canceled, except in case of attendance out of office or of commissions, when the amount can not be determined until the service is performed. Advance deposits to cover fees in such latter cases may be accepted, but in no other cases.

XIV. DISPOSITION OF FEES AND COMPENSATION OF CONSULAR AGENTS AND VICE CONSULS

The act for the reorganization of the consular service of the United States, approved April 5, 1906, provides:

"SEC. 8. That all fees, official or unofficial, received by any officer in the consular service for services rendered in connection with the duties of his office or as a consular officer, including fees for notarial services, and fees for taking depositions, executing commissions or letters rogatory, settling estates, receiving or paying out moneys, caring for or disposing of property, shall be accounted for and paid into the Treasury of the United States, and the sole and only compensation of such officers shall be by salaries fixed by law; but this shall not apply to consular agents, who shall be paid by one-half of the fees received in their offices, up to a maximum sum of one thousand dollars in any one year, the other half being accounted for and paid into the Treasury of the United States."

The act for the reorganization and improvement of the Foreign Service of the United States, approved May 24, 1924, amends the act of April 5, 1906, as follows:

"SEC. 11. That the provisions of sections 8 and 10 of the act of April 5, 1906, relative to official fees and the method of accounting therefor shall include both branches of the Foreign Service."

The act for the reorganization and improvement of the Foreign Service of the United States approved May 24, 1924, amends section 1685 of the Revised Statutes as amended by the act entitled "An act for the improvement of the Foreign Service, approved February 5, 1915," to read as follows:

"SEC. 1685. That for such time as any Foreign Service officer shall be lawfully authorized to act as chargé d'affaires ad interim or to assume charge of a consulate general or consulate during the absence of the principal officer at the post to which he shall have been assigned, he shall, if his salary is less than one-half that of such principal officer, receive in addition to his salary as Foreign Service officer compensation equal to the difference between such salary and one-half of the salary provided by law for the ambassador, minister, or principal consular officer as the case may be."

XXI. REGULATIONS CONCERNING PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS

The rules on this subject which have been prescribed by the department are the same as those contained in the seven rules of the Congress of Vienna, found in the protocol of the session of March 9, 1815, and in the supplementary or eighth rule of the Congress of Aix la Chapelle of November 21, 1818. They are as follows:

ARTICLE I. Diplomatic agents are divided into three classes: That of ambassadors, legates, or nuncios; that of envoys, ministers, or other persons accredited to sovereigns; that of chargés d'affaires accredited to ministers for foreign affairs.

ART. II. Ambassadors, legates, or nuncios only have the representative character.

ART. III. Diplomatic agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

ART. IV. Diplomatic agents shall take precedence in their respective classes according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the representative of the Pope.

ART. V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of diplomatic agents of each class.

ART. VI. Relations of consanguinity or of family alliance between courts confer no precedence on their diplomatic agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

ART. VII. In acts or treaties between several powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the ministers.

ART. VIII. . . . It is agreed that ministers resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between ministers of the second class and chargés d'affaires.

These rules have been formally or tacitly accepted by all governments except the Ottoman Porte, which divides diplomatic representatives into three classes only—ambassadors, ministers, and chargés d'affaires.

XXII. THE FOREIGN SERVICE

The diplomatic and consular branches of the Foreign Service constitute the field force for the conduct of the foreign relations of the United States. The work of the two branches is in many respects closely allied. The diplomatic branch is charged with the conduct of official intercourse between the Government of the United States and the other governments of the world. It is composed of 51 diplomatic missions, known as embassies or legations, according to their importance, situated at the capitals of as many foreign countries. Each mission consists of an ambassador, minister, or chargé d'affaires, and one or more secretaries with such clerks, translators, and other employees as may be provided. It is the duty of a mission, in addition to serving as the official channel of communication between our Government and the government to which it is accredited, to protect the lives and property of American citizens, to observe and report to the Secretary of State upon political and other conditions in the country of its residence, and, in conjunction with the consular branch, to safeguard and promote the general and commercial interests of the United States and of individual citizens.

The consular branch shares with the diplomatic branch the duty of protecting the lives and property of American citizens abroad; both are actively concerned with safeguarding and promoting the general and commercial interests of the Nation and of individual Americans, and they collaborate in observing and reporting upon conditions in the countries of their residence. In these fields of common endeavor the work of the two branches is coordinated in each country. Consuls deal with matters involving relations with local authorities, while the diplomatic mission deals with those requiring contact with the central authorities. The diplomatic mission is concerned, primarily, but by no means exclusively, with political affairs. Consuls perform important administrative functions in enforcing and assisting in the enforcement of American laws affecting American citizens residing or traveling abroad, or aliens abroad in their relations to the United States, its citizens and laws. It is also an important and vital function of consular officers to make economic investigations and reports. They protect American citizens and their interests in foreign lands and assist individual American exporters in the extension of their foreign trade.

The duties of officers in both the diplomatic and consular branches of the Foreign Service place special requirements upon them in the way of character and ability. To the individuals who can meet these requirements the career offers, on the other hand, unusual advantages.

The officers of the Foreign Service occupy abroad positions of dignity and consequence. Diplomatic officers are accorded by international law, in the countries of their residence, full immunity from local jurisdiction and enjoy important special privileges. Consular officers have, by treaty and usage and under the law of nations, the privileges and immunities necessary to the accomplishment of their functions.

Diplomatic officers are frequently the guardians of the most vital interests of the United States. Grave fiscal and administrative responsibilities rest upon consular officers.

The work of both brings them into direct contact with leaders of thought and action in the field of government, the professions, and business. In foreign eyes, they represent the United States and its institutions.

Diplomatic officers must establish and maintain in the capitals in which they reside a position befitting the commanding prestige of the United States among nations. A similar, though possibly less exigent, duty devolves upon consular officers in the communities to which they are assigned.

Adaptability, balance, tact, sound judgment, rigid impartiality, and integrity, as well as thorough general education and technical proficiency, are essential factors making for success.

The Foreign Service imposes a strict discipline upon its members. They must perform without question the duties assigned to them by the Secretary of State and proceed without demur to whatever parts of the world they may be ordered. Long hours and hard work are frequently the rule. Officers are also expected to perform, and do perform, their duty without regard for discomfort or personal danger.

The reward of the Foreign Service is not a money reward. The salaries paid to officers are not comparable to the salaries attained by the conspicuously successful in business. The appeal, however, is not to those who seek only material gain. The Foreign Service offers instead the cultural advantages of foreign travel, active contact with leaders in other lands, and the opportunity of distinguished patriotic achievement. It offers the spiritual gratification to be found in the path of public service and responsibility.

REORGANIZATION OF THE FOREIGN SERVICE

The act of May 24, 1924, provides for the reorganization and improvement of the Foreign Service, for the purpose of securing benefits of economy and efficiency through a system of combined administration, and a more effective coordination of the political and economic branches of the service.

The principal advantages in the reorganization are (1) the amalgamation of the Diplomatic and Consular branches into a single Foreign Service on an interchangeable basis; (2) the adoption of a new and uniform salary scale applicable equally to officers in the Diplomatic and Consular branches, thus making unification and interchangeability possible; (3) the authorization of representation allowances, when necessary; (4) the establishment of a retirement act.

ACT OF MAY 24, 1924

[Public—No. 135—68th Congress]

An Act For the reorganization and improvement of the Foreign Service of the United States, and for other purposes

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That hereafter the Diplomatic and Consular Service of the United States shall be known as the Foreign Service of the United States.

SEC. 2. That the official designation "Foreign Service officer" as employed throughout this act shall be deemed to denote permanent officers in the Foreign Service below the grade of minister, all of whom are subject to promotion on merit, and who may be assigned to duty in either the diplomatic or the consular branch of the Foreign Service at the discretion of the President.

SEC. 3. That the officers in the Foreign Service shall hereafter be graded and classified as follows, with the salaries of each class herein affixed thereto, but not exceeding in number for each class a proportion to the total number of officers in the service represented in the following percentage limitations: Ambassadors and ministers as now or hereafter provided; Foreign Service officers as follows: Class 1, 6 per centum, $9,000; class 2, 7 per centum, $8,000; class 3, 8 per centum, $7,000; class 4, 9 per centum, $6,000; class 5, 10 per centum, $5,000; class 6, 14 per centum, $4,500; class 7, $4,000; class 8, $3,500; class 9, $3,000; unclassified, $3,000 to $1,500: Provided, That as many Foreign Service officers above class 6 as may be required for the purpose of inspection may be detailed by the Secretary of State for that purpose.

SEC. 4. That Foreign Service officers may be appointed as secretaries in the Diplomatic Service or as consular officers or both: Provided, That all such appointments shall be made by and with the advice and consent of the Senate: Provided further, That all official acts of such officers while on duty in either the diplomatic or the consular branch of the Foreign Service shall be performed under their respective commissions as secretaries or as consular officers.

SEC. 5. That hereafter appointments to the position of Foreign Service officer shall be made after examination and a suitable period of probation in an unclassified grade or, after five years of continuous service in the Department of State, by transfer therefrom under such rules and regulations as the President may prescribe: Provided, That no candidate shall be eligible for examination for Foreign Service officer who is not an American citizen: Provided further, That reinstatement of Foreign Service officers separated from the classified service by reason of appointment to some other position in the Government service may be made by Executive order of the President under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe.

All appointments of Foreign Service officers shall be by commission to a class and not by commission to any particular post, and such officers shall be assigned to posts and may be transferred from one post to another by order of the President as the interests of the service may require: Provided, That the classification of secretaries in the Diplomatic Service and of consular officers is hereby abolished, without, however, in any wise impairing the validity of the present commissions of secretaries and consular officers.

SEC. 6. That section 5 of the act of February 5, 1915 (Public, 242), is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 5. That the Secretary of State is directed to report from time to time to the President, along with his recommendations, the names of those Foreign Service officers who by reason of efficient service have demonstrated special capacity for promotion to the grade of minister, and the names of those Foreign Service officers and employees and officers and employees in the Department of State who by reason of efficient service, an accurate record of which shall be kept in the Department of State, have demonstrated special efficiency, and also the names of persons found upon taking the prescribed examination to have fitness for appointment to the lower grades of the service."

SEC. 7. That on the date on which this Act becomes effective the Secretary of State shall certify to the President, with his recommendation in each case, the record of efficiency of the several secretaries in the Diplomatic Service, consuls general, consuls, vice consuls of career, consular assistants, interpreters, and student interpreters then in office and shall, except in cases of persons found to merit reduction in rank or dismissal from the service, recommend to the President the recommissioning, without further examination, of those then in office as follows:

Secretaries of class one designated as counselors of embassy, and consuls general of classes one and two as Foreign Service officers of class one.

Secretaries of class one designated as counselors of legation and consuls general of class three as Foreign Service officers of class two.

Secretaries of class one not designated as counselors, consuls general of class four, and consuls general at large as Foreign Service officers of class three.

Secretaries of class two, consuls general of class five, consuls of classes one, two, and three, and Chinese, Japanese, and Turkish secretaries as Foreign Service officers of class four.

Consuls of class four as Foreign Service officers of class five.

Secretaries of class three, consuls of class five, and Chinese, Japanese, and Turkish assistant secretaries as Foreign Service officers of class six.

Consuls of class six as Foreign Service officers of class seven.

Secretaries of class four and consuls of class seven as Foreign Service officers of class eight.

Consuls of classes eight and nine as Foreign Service officers of class nine.

Vice consuls of career, consular assistants, interpreters, and student interpreters as Foreign Service officers, unclassified.

SEC. 8. That consuls general of class one and consuls of class one holding office at the time this Act takes effect shall not, as a result of their recommissioning or reclassification, suffer a reduction in salary below that which they are then receiving: Provided, however, That this provision shall apply only to the incumbents of the offices mentioned at the time this Act becomes effective.

That the grade of consular assistant is hereby abolished, and that all consular assistants now in the service shall be recommissioned as Foreign Service officers, unclassified.

SEC. 9. That sections 1697 and 1698 of the Revised Statutes are hereby amended to read as follows:

"Every secretary, consul general, consul, vice consul of career, or Foreign Service officer, before he receives his commission or enters upon the duties of his office, shall give to the United States a bond, in such form as the President shall prescribe, with such sureties, who shall be permanent residents of the United States, as the Secretary of State shall approve, in a penal sum not less than the annual compensation allowed to such officer, conditioned for the true and faithful accounting for, paying over, and delivering up of all fees, moneys, goods, effects, books, records, papers, and other property which shall come to his hands or to the hands of any other person to his use as such officer under any law now or hereafter enacted, and for the true and faithful performance of all other duties now or hereafter lawfully imposed upon him as such officer: Provided, That the operation of no existing bond shall in any wise be impaired by the provisions of this Act: Provided further, That such bond shall cover by its stipulations all official acts of such officer, whether as Foreign Service officer or as secretary in the Diplomatic Service, consul general, consul, or vice consul of career. The bonds herein mentioned shall be deposited with the Secretary of the Treasury."

SEC. 10. That the provisions of section 4 of the Act of April 5, 1906, relative to the powers, duties, and prerogatives of consuls general at large are hereby made applicable to Foreign Service officers detailed for the purpose of inspection, who shall, under the direction of the Secretary of State, inspect the work of offices in the Foreign Service, both in the diplomatic and the consular branches.

SEC. 11. That the provisions of sections 8 and 10 of the Act of April 5, 1906, relative to official fees and the method of accounting therefor shall include both branches of the Foreign Service.

SEC. 12. That the President is hereby authorized to grant to diplomatic missions and to consular offices at capitals of countries where there is no diplomatic mission of the United States representation allowances out of any money which may be appropriated for such purpose from time to time by Congress, the expenditure of such representation allowance to be accounted for in detail to the Department of State quarterly under such rules and regulations as the President may prescribe.

SEC. 13. Appropriations are authorized for the salary of a private secretary to each ambassador who shall be appointed by the ambassador and hold office at his pleasure.

SEC. 14. That any Foreign Service officer may be assigned for duty in the Department of State without loss of class or salary, such assignment to be for a period of not more than three years, unless the public interests demand further service, when such assignment may be extended for a period not to exceed one year. Any Foreign Service officer of whatever class detailed for special duty not at his post or in the Department of State shall be paid his actual and necessary expenses for travel and not exceeding an average of $8 per day for subsistence during such special detail: Provided, That such special duty shall not continue for more than sixty days, unless in the case of trade conferences or international gatherings, congresses, or conferences, when such subsistence expenses shall run only during the period thereof and the necessary period of transit to and from the place of gathering: Provided further, That the Secretary of State is authorized to prescribe a per diem allowance not exceeding $6, in lieu of subsistence for Foreign Service officers on special duty or Foreign Service inspectors.

SEC. 15. That the Secretary of State is authorized, whenever he deems it to be in the public interest, to order to the United States on his statutory leave of absence any Foreign Service officer who has performed three years or more of continuous service abroad: Provided, That the expense of transportation and subsistence of such officers and their immediate families, in traveling from their posts to their homes in the United States and return, shall be paid under the same rules and regulations applicable in the case of officers going to and returning from their posts under orders of the Secretary of State when not on leave: Provided further, That while in the United States the services of such officers shall be available for trade conference work or for such duties in the Department of State as the Secretary of State may prescribe.

SEC. 16. That the part of the Act of July 1, 1916 (Public, Numbered 131), which authorizes the President to designate and assign any secretary of class one as counselor of embassy or legation, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Provided, That the President may, whenever he considers it advisable so to do, designate and assign any Foreign Service officer as counselor of embassy or legation."

SEC. 17. That within the discretion of the President, any Foreign Service officer may be appointed to act as commissioner, chargé d'affaires, minister resident, or diplomatic agent for such period as the public interests may require without loss of grade, class, or salary: Provided, however, That no such officer shall receive more than one salary.

That section 1685 of the Revised Statutes as amended by the Act entitled "An Act for the improvement of the Foreign Service, approved February 5, 1915," is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 1685. That for such time as any Foreign Service officer shall be lawfully authorized to act as chargé d'affaires ad interim or to assume charge of a consulate general or consulate during the absence of the principal officer at the post to which he shall have been assigned, he shall, if his salary is less than one-half that of such principal officer, receive in addition to his salary as Foreign Service officer compensation equal to the difference between such salary and one-half of the salary provided by law for the ambassador, minister, or principal consular officer, as the case may be."

SEC. 18. The President is authorized to prescribe rules and regulations for the establishment of a Foreign Service retirement and disability system to be administered under the direction of the Secretary of State and in accordance with the following principles, to wit:

(a) The Secretary of State shall submit annually a comparative report showing all receipts and disbursements on account of refunds, allowances, and annuities, together with the total number of persons receiving annuities and the amounts paid them, and shall submit annually estimates of appropriations necessary to continue this section in full force and such appropriations are hereby authorized: Provided, That in no event shall the aggregate total appropriations exceed the aggregate total of the contributions of the Foreign Service officers theretofore made, and accumulated interest thereon.

(b) There is hereby created a special fund to be known as the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund.

(c) Five per centum of the basic salary of all Foreign Service officers eligible to retirement shall be contributed to the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund and the Secretary of the Treasury is directed on the date on which this Act takes effect to cause such deductions to be made and the sums transferred on the books of the Treasury Department to the credit of the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund for the payment of annuities, refunds, and allowances: Provided, That all basic salaries in excess of $9,000 per annum shall be treated as $9,000.

(d) When any Foreign Service officer has reached the age of sixty-five years and rendered at least fifteen years of service he shall be retired: Provided, That the President may in his discretion retain any such officer on active duty for such period not exceeding five years as he may deem for the interest of the United States.

(e) Annuities shall be paid to retired Foreign Service officers under the following classification, based upon length of service and at the following percentages of the average annual basic salary for the ten years next preceding the date of retirement: Class A, thirty years or more, 60 per centum; class B, from twenty-seven to thirty years, 54 per centum; class C, from twenty-four to twenty-seven years, 48 per centum; class D, from twenty-one to twenty-four years, 42 per centum; class E, from eighteen to twenty-one years, 36 per centum; class F, from fifteen to eighteen years, 30 per centum.

(f) Those officers who retire before having contributed for each year of service shall have withheld from their annuities to the credit of the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund such proportion of 5 per centum as the number of years in which they did not contribute bears to the total length of service.

(g) The Secretary of the Treasury is directed to invest from time to time in interest-bearing, securities of the United States such portions of the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund as in his judgment may not be immediately required for the payment of annuities, refunds, and allowances, and the income derived from such investments shall constitute a part of said fund.

(h) None of the moneys mentioned in this section shall be assignable, either in law or equity, or be subject to execution, levy, or attachment, garnishment, or other legal process.

(i) In case an annuitant dies without having received in annuities an amount equal to the total amount of his contributions from salary with interest thereon at 4 per centum per annum compounded annually up to the time of his death, the excess of the said accumulated contributions over the said annuity payments shall be paid to his or her legal representatives; and in case a Foreign Service officer shall die without having reached the retirement age the total amount of his contributions with accrued interest shall be paid to his legal representatives.

(j) That any Foreign Service officer who before reaching the age of retirement becomes totally disabled for useful and efficient service by reason of disease or injury not due to vicious habits, intemperance, or willful misconduct on his part, shall, upon his own application or upon order of the President, be retired on an annuity under paragraph (e) of this section: Provided, however, That in each case such disability shall be determined by the report of a duly qualified physician or surgeon designated by the Secretary of State to conduct the examination: Provided further, That unless the disability be permanent, a like examination shall be made annually in order to determine the degree of disability, and the payment of annuity shall cease from the date of the medical examination showing recovery.

Fees for examinations under this provision, together with reasonable traveling and other expenses incurred in order to submit to examination, shall be paid out of the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund.

When the annuity is discontinued under this provision, before the annuitant has received a sum equal to the total amount of his contributions with accrued interest, the difference shall be paid to him or to his legal representatives.

(k) The President is authorized from time to time to establish, by Executive order, a list of places in tropical countries which by reason of climatic or other extreme conditions are to be classed as unhealthful posts, and each year of duty at such posts, while so classed, inclusive of regular leaves of absence, shall be counted as one year and a half, and so on in like proportion in reckoning the length of service for the purposes of retirement.

(l) Whenever a Foreign Service officer becomes separated from the service except for disability before reaching the age of retirement, 75 per centum of the total amount of contribution from his salary without interest shall be returned to him.

(m) Whenever any Foreign Service officer, after the date of his retirement, accepts a position of employment the emoluments of which are greater than the annuity received by him from the United States Government by virtue of his retirement under this Act, the amount of the said annuity during the continuance of such employment shall be reduced by an equal amount: Provided, That all retired Foreign Service officers shall notify the Secretary of State once a year of any positions of employment accepted by them, stating the amount of compensation received therefrom, and whenever any such officer fails to so report it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to order the payment of the annuity to be suspended until such report is received.

(n) The Secretary of State is authorized to expend from surplus money to the credit of the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund an amount not exceeding $5,000 for the expenses necessary in carrying out the provisions of this section, including actuarial advice.

(o) Any diplomatic secretary or consular officer who has been or any Foreign Service officer who may hereafter be promoted from the classified service to the grade of ambassador or minister, or appointed to a position in the Department of State shall be entitled to all the benefits of this section in the same manner and under the same conditions as Foreign Service officers.

(p) For the purposes of this Act the period of service shall be computed from the date of original oath of office as secretary in the Diplomatic Service, consul general, consul, vice consul, deputy consul, consular assistant, consular agent, commercial agent, interpreter, or student interpreter, and shall include periods of service at different times in either the Diplomatic or Consular Service, or while on assignment to the Department of State, or on special duty, but all periods of separation from the service and so much of any period of leave of absence as may exceed six months shall be excluded: Provided, That service in the Department of State prior to appointment as a Foreign Service officer may be included in the period of service, in which case the officer shall pay into the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund a special contribution equal to 5 per centum of his annual salary for each year of such employment, with interest thereon to date of payment compounded annually at 4 per centum.

SEC. 19. In the event of public emergency any retired Foreign Service officer may be recalled temporarily to active service by the President and while so serving he shall be entitled in lieu of his retirement allowance to the full pay of the class in which he is temporarily serving.

SEC. 20. That all provisions of law heretofore enacted relating to secretaries in the Diplomatic Service and to consular officers, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby made applicable to Foreign Service officers when they are designated for service as diplomatic or as consular officers, and that all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 21. That the appropriations contained in Title I of the Act entitled "An Act making appropriations for the Departments of State and Justice and for the Judiciary and for the Departments of Commerce and Labor for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1925, and for other purposes," for such compensation and expenses as are affected by the provisions of this Act are made available and may be applied toward the payment of the compensation and expenses herein provided for, except that no part of such appropriations shall be available for the payment of annuities to retired Foreign Service officers.

SEC. 22. The titles "Second Assistant Secretary of State" and "Third Assistant Secretary of State" shall hereafter be known as "Assistant Secretary of State" without numerical distinction of rank; but the change of title shall in no way impair the commissions, salaries, and duties of the present incumbents.

There is hereby established in the Department of State an additional "Assistant Secretary of State," who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall be entitled to compensation at the rate of $7,500 per annum.

The position of Director of the Consular Service is abolished and the salary provided for that office is hereby made available for the salary of the additional Assistant Secretary of State herein authorized.

SEC. 23. That this Act shall take effect on July 1, 1924.

Approved, May 24, 1924.

EXECUTIVE ORDER OF JUNE 7, 1924

Whereas, the Congress, by the Act of May 24, 1924, has confirmed and given statutory recognition to the civil service status of the Foreign Service established by the Presidential Executive orders of June 27, 1906, for the Consular Service, and November 26, 1909, for the Diplomatic Service.

And, whereas, under the provisions of the said Act of May 24, 1924, the President is authorized to prescribe certain rules and regulations for administering the Foreign Service on an interchangeable basis.

Now, therefore, the President, in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the Constitution and laws of the United States, makes the following regulations:

1. Vacancies in all classes from 1 to 9 shall be filled by promotion from lower classes, based upon ability and efficiency as shown in the service.

2. All admissions to the service shall be to the grade of Foreign Service Officer, unclassified.

3. Officers and employees, after five years of continuous service in the Department of State are eligible for appointment by transfer to any class in the Foreign Service upon the recommendation of the Foreign Service Personnel Board and with the approval of the Secretary of State as hereinafter provided.

THE FOREIGN SERVICE PERSONNEL BOARD

4. There is hereby constituted a Foreign Service Personnel Board composed as follows:

The Under Secretary of State, who shall be the Chairman, and Assistant Secretary of State to be designated by the Secretary of State, the Director of the Consular Service (on and after July 1, 1924, this title becomes Assistant Secretary of State), and the members of the Executive Committee of the Foreign Service Personnel Board.

5. It shall be the duty of the Board:

(a) To examine into the character, ability, efficiency, experience, and general availability of all secretaries in the diplomatic service, consuls general, consuls, vice consuls of career, consular assistants, interpreters and student interpreters, and before July 1, 1924, to submit to the Secretary of State such information as he may require regarding the efficiency records of such officers.

(b) From time to time after the Act of May 24, 1924, becomes effective and as vacancies arise, to submit to the Secretary of State lists of those Foreign Service Officers whose records of efficiency entitle them to advancement in the service, and who are therefore recommended for promotion, and the names of those officers and employees in the Department of State who, after five years of continuous service, and because of special ability and merit are recommended for appointment by transfer to the position of Foreign Service Officer. All such lists to be signed by the Chairman and at least three members of the Board, except in the case of a tie vote when the Secretary of State shall decide.

(c) To submit to the Secretary of State the names of those Foreign Service Officers who, in the opinion of the Board, have demonstrated special capacity for promotion to the grade of Minister. Each list thus submitted shall enumerate the names of the officers in the order of merit and shall be complete in itself, superseding all previous lists. A list shall be submitted to the Secretary of State whenever there is a vacancy in the grade of Minister or when requested by the President or the Secretary of State, and in no case shall it contain more names than there are vacancies to fill. Each such list shall be signed by the Chairman and at least three members of the Board, and if approved by the Secretary of State shall be submitted to the President.

(d) To submit to the Secretary of State the names of those Foreign Service Officers who are recommended for designation as counselors of embassy or legation.

(e) To recommend to the Secretary of State the assignment of Foreign Service Officers to posts and the transfer of such officers from one branch of the service to the other according to the needs of the service.

(f) To consider controversies and delinquencies among the service personnel and recommend to the Secretary appropriate disciplinary measures where required.

For the purposes stated in paragraphs (e) and (f), the Undersecretary of State, the Assistant Secretary of State and the Director of the Consular Service (on and after July 1, 1924, this title becomes Assistant Secretary of State) shall be deemed to constitute the full Board, but the Executive Committee shall have power of recommendation.

6. Whenever it is determined that the efficiency rating of an officer is poor and below the required standard for the service, the Personnel Board shall so notify the officer, and if after due notification the rating of such officer continues nevertheless to be unsatisfactory, his name shall be reported to the Secretary of State with a full recital of the circumstances and a recommendation of the Board for separation from the service.

Whenever such recommendation for separation from the service is made, the Board shall at the same time notify the officer of the action taken.

7. The members of the Board, individually and collectively, shall have authority to examine all records and data relating to the personnel of the service.

8. All action taken by the Board shall be strictly nonpartisan, and based exclusively upon the record of efficiency of the officers concerned.

9. The proceedings of the Board shall be strictly confidential, but the Chairman may, and it is hereby made a part of his duty, within a reasonable time prior to each meeting of the Board for recommending promotions, demotions, or removals, to invite the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and the Chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs or some committee member designated by the Chairman, to sit with the Board through its deliberations without, however, participating in its decisions.

10. The Board shall elect its Secretary from among its members.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

11. There is hereby constituted an Executive Committee of the Foreign Service Personnel Board, to be composed of a Chairman and two other members who shall be Foreign Service Officers of high rank representing both the diplomatic and the consular branches of the Foreign Service, to be selected by the other members of the Personnel Board with the approval of the Secretary of State.

The Secretary of State is authorized to prescribe the duties of the Executive Committee.

THE BOARD OF EXAMINERS

12. There is hereby constituted a Board of Examiners composed of the following members, to wit: The Undersecretary of State, an Assistant Secretary of State to be designated by the Secretary of State, the Director of the Consular Service (on and after July 1, 1924, this title becomes Assistant Secretary of State), the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Foreign Service Personnel Board, and the Chief Examiner of the Civil Service Commission or such person as may be designated by him to serve in his stead.

13. It shall be the duty of the Board of Examiners to formulate rules for and hold examinations of applicants for commission to the Foreign Service and to determine from among the persons designated by the President for examination those who are fitted for appointment.

14. The scope and method of the examinations shall be determined by the Board of Examiners, but among the subjects shall be included the following: At least one modern language other than English (French, Spanish, or German by preference), elements of international law, geography, the natural, industrial, and commercial resources and the commerce of the United States; American history, government, and institutions; the history since 1850 of Europe, Latin America and the Far East; elements of political economy, commercial and maritime law.

15. The examinations shall be both written and oral.

16. Examinations shall be rated on a scale of 100, and no person rated at less than 80 shall be eligible for certification.

17. No one shall be certified as eligible who is under 21 or over 35 years of age, or who is not a citizen of the United States, or who is not of good character and habits and physically, mentally, and temperamentally qualified for the proper performance of the duties of the Foreign Service, or who has not been specially designated by the President for appointment subject to examination and to the occurrence of an appropriate vacancy.

18. Upon the conclusion of the examinations, the names of the candidates who shall have attained upon the whole examination the required rating will be certified by the Board to the Secretary of State as eligible for appointment.

19. The names of candidates will remain on the eligible list for two years, except in the case of such candidates as shall within that period be appointed or shall withdraw their names. Names which have been on the eligible list for two years will be dropped therefrom and the candidates concerned will not again be eligible for appointment unless upon fresh application, designation anew for examination, and the successful passing of such examination.

20. Applicants for appointment who are designated to take an examination and who fail to report therefor, shall not be entitled to take a subsequent examination unless they shall have been specifically designated to take such subsequent examination.

21. In designations for appointment subject to examination and in appointments after examination, due regard will be had to the principle that as between candidates of equal merit, appointments should be made so as to tend to secure proportional representation of all the States and Territories in the Foreign Service; and neither in the designation for examination nor certification nor appointment after examination will the political affiliations of the candidates be considered.

22. The Board of Examiners is authorized to issue such notices and to make all such rules as it may deem necessary to accomplish the object of this regulation.

23. New appointments to the service shall be to the grade of Foreign Service Officer, unclassified, and no promotions to a higher grade shall be made except on the recommendation of the Foreign Service Personnel Board, with the approval of the Secretary of State, after the completion of one full term of instruction, or the equivalent thereof in the Foreign Service School herein-after established.

24. Those candidates for appointment as diplomatic or consular officers whose names are on the eligible list at the time the Act of May 24, 1924, becomes effective shall be eligible for appointment as Foreign Service Officers.

THE FOREIGN SERVICE SCHOOL

25. There is hereby established in the Department of State a Foreign Service School for the instruction of new appointees.

26. The Foreign Service School shall be under the direction of a Foreign Service School Board, composed of the following members, to wit: The Undersecretary of State, an Assistant Secretary of State to be designated by the Secretary of State, the Director of the Consular Service (on and after July 1, 1924, this title becomes Assistant Secretary of State), the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Foreign Service Personnel Board, and the Chief Instructor of the Foreign Service School. The School Board will act in all matters with the approval of the Secretary of State.

27. The Chief Instructor shall be selected by the other members of the School Board from among the officers of the Foreign Service, with the approval of the Secretary of State.

28. Other instructors shall be selected from among the qualified officers of the Department of State, the Foreign Service, the other executive departments of the Government, and other available sources in the discretion of the School Board.

29. The term of instruction in the Foreign Service School is one year, which shall be considered a period of probation, during which the new appointees are to be judged as to their qualifications for advancement and assignment to duty. At the end of the term, recommendations shall be made to the Secretary of State by the personnel board for the dismissal of any who may have failed to meet the required standard of the service.

30. The Secretary of State is authorized to prescribe rules and regulations for the governance of the Foreign Service School.

CALVIN COOLIDGE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, June 7, 1924.

DEPARTMENTAL ORDER NO. 295

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE FOREIGN SERVICE PERSONNEL BOARD

With a view to strengthening and improving the personnel of the Foreign Service and securing uniform and impartial ratings for all officers and employees, the following duties are hereby prescribed for the executive committee of the Foreign Service Personnel Board under the authority contained in the Executive order of the President, dated June 7, 1924:

1. To take into its possession and consolidate immediately all records and material relating to the personnel of the Foreign Service, both diplomatic and consular. The Diplomatic Bureau, the Consular Bureau and the office of Consular Personnel will promptly surrender all such files and records as may be in their possession.
2. To keep the efficiency records of all Foreign Service officers and employees.
3. To collect, collate, and record pertinent data relating to Foreign Service personnel.
4. To submit to the Foreign Service Personnel Board recommendations for the assignment of officers to posts and the transfer of such officers from one branch of the service to the other.
5. To recommend the granting of leaves of absence.
6. To interview applicants and prospective applicants for the Foreign Service.
7. To examine and recommend for appointment applicants for positions as subordinate employees in the Foreign Service.
8. To maintain contact with Foreign Service officers and employees while on visits to the United States. For this purpose a register of visiting officers and employees shall be kept.

All personnel records shall be held strictly confidential, and no papers, documents, data, or reports relating thereto shall be revealed except to the Secretary of State, the members of the Foreign Service Personnel Board, and the board of review.

At least once a year, or whenever the Secretary of State shall so order, all personnel records, ratings, and accumulated material shall be examined impartially by a board of review and a report rendered to the Foreign Service Personnel Board as to the relative standing of officers and employees. The board of review shall be composed of five members, of whom the chairman of the executive committee shall be the chairman, and the remaining four drawn from Foreign Service officers of high rank by the Secretary of State.

CHARLES E. HUGHES.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, June 9, 1924.

DEPARTMENTAL ORDER No. 296

THE FOREIGN SERVICE SCHOOL

The President by Executive order of June 7, 1924, having provided for the establishment of a Foreign Service School in the Department of State, the following rules and regulations are hereby made for the governance of the school:

1. The chief instructor shall be selected from among Foreign Service officers of class 5 or over.
2. He shall have the following duties:
 - (a) To prepare and submit to the school board for approval a complete schedule of work to be covered during the term of instruction.
 - (b) To select instructors in the various subjects from among the qualified officers of the Department of State, the Foreign Service, the other executive departments of the Government, and other available sources.
 - (c) To instruct the school in subjects selected and approved by the board.
 - (d) To maintain the discipline of the school and bear responsibility therefor.
 - (e) To keep a record of attendance and an impartial, confidential rating of each pupil with respect to his qualifications for the Foreign Service.
 - (f) To act as a member of the school board.

(g) To make reports on the work of the school and the individual pupils at the end of the term of instruction or whenever required by the school board or the Secretary of State.

3. Each term of instruction shall begin and end on dates to be fixed by the school board.

4. Each Foreign Service pupil shall be assigned to one of the divisions or bureaus of the Department of State, where he will report for duty when not attending classes.

5. The chiefs of the divisions or bureaus shall report to the chief instructor the character of the work done by the pupils assigned to them, together with any delinquencies.

CHARLES E. HUGHES.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING EXAMINATIONS FOR THE FOREIGN SERVICE, PROMULGATED BY THE BOARD OF EXAMINERS DECEMBER 15, 1924

The board of examiners for the Foreign Service, in the discharge of the duty intrusted to it by the order of the President dated June 7, 1924, of formulating rules for and determining the scope and method of examinations of applicants for admission to the Foreign Service, prescribes the following regulations:

1. Examinations for unclassified grade only.—Examinations will be for the grade of Foreign Service officer unclassified, with the understanding that successful candidates will be assigned to the diplomatic or consular branch of the Foreign Service according to the needs of the service and the special qualifications of the candidates.

2. Time of examinations.—Examinations will usually be held twice yearly in the months of January and July, upon dates to be publicly announced through the press. All persons designated for examination will be notified in writing in advance of the examination. Examinations for particular candidates on dates other than those on which the regular examinations occur will not be held except as provided in section 3.

3. Place of examination.—All examinations will be held in Washington or at other places specified in the letter of notification. Candidates for examination who are employed in diplomatic missions or consular offices abroad in clerical positions, and have been so employed for not less than six months, may be permitted to take the written examination at their posts of duty upon a regular examination date specified by the board, and the oral examination² upon the occasion of their presence in Washington before or after the date of taking the written examination.

4. Scope of examination.—The examination will be in two parts, one written and the other oral, each part counting equally. The written examination will include the subjects prescribed by the President, to wit: Modern languages (French, Spanish, or German is required, and a candidate may offer, in the total test, in addition to one of these any languages with which he may be familiar); elements of international, commercial, and maritime law; political and commercial geography; the natural, industrial, and commercial resources and commerce of the United States with especial relation to the possibilities of trade expansion and protection; American history, government, and institutions; the history since 1850 of Europe, Latin America, and the Far East, with particular attention to political and economic tendencies; and the elements of political economy. Candidates will be examined in arithmetic as used in commercial statistics, tariff calculations, exchange and simple accounting, and they will be rated in English, composition, grammar, punctuation, spelling, and penmanship as shown by their replies to questions in the written examination.

The oral examination will be designed to ascertain the physical, mental, and temperamental qualifications of candidates for the proper performance of the duties of the Foreign Service; their character, ability, address, judgment, and fitness, general education and culture, and contemporary information, experience and business ability. In this part of the examination the applications previously filed, together with all other available information concerning the candidates, will be utilized in ascertaining the pertinent facts.

5. Method of examination.—The written examination will be conducted for the board by the Civil Service Commission and will usually occupy two days. The oral examination will be conducted by the board after the candidates shall have completed the written examination. The physical fitness of the candidates will be determined by Government surgeons in Washington acting in an advisory capacity to the board of examiners.

² This examination is held on the second Tuesday of February, April, June, August, October, and December of each year.

6. Ratings.—Examinations will be rated on a scale of 100 and no person rated at less than 80 shall be eligible for certification.

7. Certification.—The names of candidates who shall have attained upon the whole examination the required rating of 80 will be certified by the board to the Secretary of State in the order of their standing in the examination as eligible for appointment. No one will be certified as eligible who is not a citizen of the United States specially designated by the President for appointment subject to examination and who has not reached the age of 21 or who has already reached the age of 35.³

8. Results of examinations.—The results of the examinations will be made known to candidates as soon as the report of the board shall have been submitted to the Secretary of State, and they will be informed of the rating in each subject and the average in the written examination, the total rating in the oral examination, which includes the physical examination, and the rating on the whole examination. No information in regard to the details of the oral examination will be made public.

9. Duration of eligibility.—The names of eligible candidates who have not been appointed or whose names have not been withdrawn by the candidates will remain upon the eligible list for two years from the date of certification, when they will be dropped therefrom and the candidates will not again be eligible for appointment except upon a new application, designation, and examination.

10. Failure to report.—Candidates who fail to report for the examination for which they have been duly designated may not be admitted to a subsequent examination unless specifically designated to take the subsequent examination.

11. Political affiliations not considered.—The political and religious affiliations of candidates will not be considered either in examinations or certifications.

12. Expenses of candidates.—The traveling and other personal expenses of candidates in connection with the taking of examinations are not borne by the Government.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION REGARDING THE FOREIGN SERVICE EXAMINATIONS

Candidates seeking designation for examination may obtain from the Department of State upon request forms of application for appointment. Applications and all correspondence relating thereto should be addressed to the Secretary of State, who will in due course notify by letter such applicants as may be designated for examination. The letter of designation furnishes all information necessary as to date and place of the examination, and it is the practice to send out such letters two months prior to the date set for the examination.

All applications, whether for designation for examination or for appointment to a clerkship must be filled out completely in the handwriting of the applicant, and accompanied by five indorsements in the form of letters from competent and responsible persons, attesting the moral character, integrity, good deportment, and ability of the applicant, his business experience, and his qualifications as set forth in the application. The originals of all indorsements listed in the application must be filed therewith; copies are not acceptable. Indorsements remain a part of the Government records and may not be withdrawn while a person remains an applicant or while he is an officer or employe of the Department of State.

Applications should also be accompanied by a birth certificate and an unmounted photograph of the applicant, plainly marked with his name and the approximate date when the photograph was taken.

Applicants for appointment in their correspondence with the department should always sign their names as given in their applications, without enlargement or contraction, one given name at least being used.

An applicant should be particularly careful to give his legal residence correctly. The Department of State does not undertake to determine an applicant's legal residence.

Applicants are required to state if they have had, or still have, outstanding financial obligations, and if so the nature and extent thereof.

³ The age specified is regarded as having been attained on the day preceding the 21st or 35th anniversary of the person's birthday (22 Cyc. 512; Opinion of the Solicitor for the Interior Department, Aug. 24, 1920).

An application is considered as pending for a period of two years. After such period has elapsed without action having been taken thereon, another application with new indorsements will be necessary to obtain further consideration.

American citizens only may be designated for Foreign Service examinations. As a rule, only persons born in the United States are appointed to the Foreign Service, and the assignment of naturalized citizens to duty in the country of their birth or contiguous countries is avoided.

Under the law and regulations, Foreign Service examinations are open to any American citizen who from the application presented would appear to possess sufficient education for the service, and who may be designated therefor.

There are about 450 posts in the two branches of the Foreign Service, presenting many peculiar climatic, social, and racial conditions. Candidates can not be certified as eligible to serve at a few posts only, but must be chosen from the standpoint of their availability for at least a majority of the posts. Officers must expect assignment to tropical and unhealthful posts as well as to posts where healthful climatic conditions prevail.

Many colleges and universities furnish courses covering the subjects of Foreign Service examinations.

The Government does not recommend any particular institutions, does not furnish a course of study in any educational institution, nor suggest a list of books to be studied in preparation for examination.

It is suggested that prospective candidates correspond with respect to courses with any institution they might wish to attend; and that persons teaching the subjects embraced in the examination are prepared to suggest the best textbooks.

The Foreign Service school, established by the Executive order of June 7, 1924, is for the instruction of persons who have passed the prescribed examinations and have been appointed Foreign Service officers, unclassified grade. Candidates preparing for examination are not admitted to the Foreign Service School.

The department does not furnish information regarding vacancies or possible vacancies in the Foreign Service.

The only set of examination papers which is furnished to applicants is that printed below.

MUNICH, le 2 décembre, 1923.

MESSIEURS C., M. ET CIE. à Rome.

Usant des offres aimables que vous avez bien voulu nous faire à plusieurs reprises, nous vous recommandons tout particulièrement le porteur de la présente, Monsieur L., que son goût prononcé pour les arts décide à passer quelques années dans votre ville pour y étudier les œuvres des grands maîtres. Les heureuses dispositions que ce jeune homme montre pour la peinture nous font bien augurer de son projet, et ses qualités personnelles nous font un devoir de le recommander à nos amis et à nos connaissances. Nous espérons que votre sieur M., qui est lui-même artiste—et un artiste distingué—voudra bien prendre intérêt à notre protégé et, si ce n'est l'éclairer de ses conseils, du moins lui faciliter l'accès dans les diverses galeries. Nous nous regarderons comme personnellement obligés de tout ce que votre amitié pour nous vous dictera en faveur de notre protégé et nous vous en adressons d'avance tous nos remerciements.

Recevez, Messieurs, l'expression sincère de notre affectueux dévouement.

MUY SEÑORES MfOS: Habiendo merecido de Vds. muchos y grandes favores, me atrevo aún a molestarles de nuevo, en la confianza de que, por su reconocida bondad y la amistad que Vds. me profesan, perdonarán la molestia, y que de estar en su mano me servirán con tanto gusto como lo haría yo.

La considerable extensión que han tomado los negocios desde hace poco tiempo me ha procurado un gran número de comisiones y desde hace algunas semanas mi fábrica trabaja sin cesar. Sin embargo este aumento de negocios me ha cogido tan de improviso que me veo obligado para seguir empleando mis obreros a proporcionarme un empréstito de 3,500 a 4,000 pesetas. No pudiendo contar con entradas inmediatas me veo en la necesidad de obtener un crédito en descubierto por valor de dicha suma. Si creen Vds. que el negocio se puede emprender y no tienen inconveniente en hacerlo, les suplico me lo comuniquen cuanto antes para saber a que atenerme.

Al mismo tiempo me suscribo de Vds. s. s.

HERREN WM. C. & SON, Newcastle.

Ich habe in jüngster Zeit keine Veranlassung gehabt, an Sie zu schreiben, ersuche Sie aber heute, einem mir von Lissabon zugegangenen Auftrage auf eine aus Ihren Hafem zu verschiffende Ladung Steinkohlen Ihre Aufmerksamkeit zu widmen. Wenn derselbe zur Zufriedenheit meines dortigen Freundes ausgeführt wird, so dürfte sich dieser wahrscheinlich zu allmonatlicher Erneuerung seiner Ordre veranlasst finden. Die Ladung soll aus 10-15 Keels für Schmiede passender Steinkohlen bester Qualität bestehen. Bemühen Sie sich gefälligst um die Verladung in möglichst billiger Fracht. Da jetzt beständig Schiffe zur Einnahme von Fruchtladungen auslaufen, so wird es Ihnen, denke ich, nicht schwer werden, zu einem sehr niedrigen Satze anzukommen, zumal die Kohlen als Ballast dienen und somit die Kosten für Ein- und Ausladen desselben erspart werden. Sie wollen ferner die Güte haben, mir zeitig Bericht über die Verladung nebst Angabe des ungefähren Betrages zukommen zu lassen, damit ich mich bei Besorgung der Assekuranz danach richten kann. Sobald ich Faktura and Verladungsschein erhalte, soll Ihre Tratte für den Belauf der ersten schuldigst honoriert werden.

Ich empfehle mich Ihnen
hochachtungsvoll ergebenst,

WM. M.

Make an idiomatic translation of the following into the language chosen by you in the foregoing exercise:

NEW YORK, May 1, 1924.

MESSRS. A. AND G., Naples, Italy.

GENTLEMEN: We take the liberty of recommending to your kind attention the bearer of this letter, Mr. J. R., a traveling salesman of the firm of M. and Company of this city. Our friend is about to pay a visit to your country for the purpose of extending the commercial relations of his employers, and therefore we beg you to be so good as to serve him in every case in which he may require your assistance, furnishing him with any information that will contribute to the realization of his wishes. Should Mr. R. want some funds to meet his expenses for trips into the interior, have the kindness to give him the sums he needs up to the amount of one thousand five hundred dollars, taking his draft on us, to your order, at sight. When he has completed his journey, we shall reimburse you.

Very respectfully,

EXECUTIVE ORDER OF OCTOBER 13, 1905

The Executive order of October 13, 1905, as amended on May 17, 1919, is hereby amended to read as follows:

No officer or employee of the Government shall, directly or indirectly, instruct or be concerned in any manner in the instruction of any person or classes of persons, with a view to their special preparation for the examinations of the United States Civil Service Commission. The fact that any officer or employee is found so engaged shall be considered sufficient cause for his removal from the service: Provided, That this order shall not be so construed as to prevent the Federal Board for Vocational Education, the Medical Departments of the Army and Navy, and any other branches of the Government from utilizing the Government facilities and the services of Federal officers and employees where such facilities or services may be necessary or useful in carrying out the duties imposed upon such departments or branches by law, in the training and testing of disabled soldiers, sailors, and marines.

WOODROW WILSON.

THE WHITE HOUSE, 13 January, 1920.

This order has since been amended to extend to Government establishments generally the exemption heretofore made in the case of the Federal Board of Vocational Education.

INFORMATION CONCERNING FOREIGN SERVICE OFFICERS AND SUBORDINATES

SECRETARIES

It is the duty of diplomatic secretaries to assist the chief of mission in all matters in which their assistance may be required; to supervise the administrative work of the mission; and to cultivate and maintain friendly relations with the officials of the Government in whose capital they reside and with the members of the Diplomatic Corps.

Diplomatic secretaries are charged with the preparation of such correspondence with the Department of State, the Foreign Office of the Government to which they are accredited, and with private organizations and persons as may be intrusted to them by the chief of mission. They are called upon to obtain exact information bearing upon the political, economic, and other questions of interest arising in the country of their assignment, and to prepare for the assistance of the chief of mission and for the information of the Department of State authoritative reports upon such subjects. Secretaries exercise supervision over the administrative functions of the mission which include the custody of the archives, the classification, indexing and filing of correspondence, and the coding and decoding of messages in confidential cipher.

In the absence from his post of the chief of mission the ranking counselor or diplomatic secretary assumes the office of chargé d'affaires ad interim, and in that capacity becomes responsible for the proper conduct of the mission and for the representation of the interests of this Government.

Secretaries are expected to study and become reasonably proficient in the language of the country of their assignment. The importance of Spanish may be realized from the fact that it is the language at 19 posts in the Diplomatic Service. Secretaries must study earnestly the political, economic, financial, and other conditions existing in the countries where they are stationed, and be alert at all times to obtain and communicate to their chief information of interest and value.

Unswerving loyalty, faithfulness, discipline, tact, perseverance, and the ability to keep one's own counsel, are of vital importance in the Diplomatic Service. A diplomatic secretary is not merely an individual residing abroad but a representative of his Government and country, and judgment may frequently be passed upon his country largely in accordance with his conduct. The realization of this fact should be enough to inspire such an officer with a proper sense of responsibility and with the firm determination so to conduct himself that the prestige and good name of his country may if possible be enhanced.

Secretaries are expected to take their turn in whatever part of the world their services may be required, and every secretary, whether married or unmarried, must be prepared to go to the post to which he may be assigned.

CONSULAR OFFICERS

Consuls general and consuls are what are technically designated principal consular officers, as distinguished from subordinate officers. They are usually assigned to take responsible charge of consulates general and consulates, while subordinate consular officers are assigned to duty in those offices under the direction of the principal officers.

Practically all of the functions of a consular officer may be classified under three heads—(a) administrative duties, (b) protection of the interests of his countrymen, and (c) facilitation of trade. In fulfilling these functions he serves, either directly or indirectly, every department of the Government and virtually every citizen of the United States.

A consular officer's duty under the first heading is to enforce and assist in the enforcement of American laws, in so far as they affect American citizens residing or traveling abroad, or aliens abroad in their relations to the United States, its citizens, and laws. More specifically these duties include: Aiding in the collection of customs revenue by certifying to the correctness of the valuation of merchandise exported to the United States; the visaing, and, when so authorized, the issuing of passports; the settlement, in certain cases, of the personal estates of Americans who may die abroad; services to American vessels and seamen; reporting the sanitary and health conditions of foreign ports; assisting in the enforcement of the immigration and quarantine laws; performing of notarial services; acting as witness to marriages of American citizens abroad, etc., etc.

Under the second heading, consular officers are expected to endeavor to maintain and promote all the rightful interests of American citizens and to protect them in all privileges provided for by treaty or conceded by usage. When disasters occur in his consular district, an officer is required to report to the Department of State, whether Americans or American interests have been affected in any way, and to point out any steps which should be taken by those interested. Consular officers in China, Egypt, Siam, Morocco, and a few other so-called non-Christian countries are invested with judicial powers over American citizens in those countries. These powers are usually defined by treaty, but generally include the trial of civil cases to which Americans are parties, and in some instances extend to the trial of criminal cases.

The third heading, "Facilitation of trade," includes duties offering unlimited opportunities to a capable, industrious, and interested man. A consular officer is expected to reply fully and in a practical manner to the numerous inquiries which he receives from American business houses in regard to commercial questions and the possibility of marketing their products in his consular district. Another duty of prime importance is the promotion of American commerce by reporting available opportunities for the introduction of our products and aiding in the establishment of relations between American and foreign commercial houses. Consuls are constantly occupied with the preparation of economic and commercial reports and, whenever the opportunity arises, they render assistance to the traveling representatives of American business. In their trade extension work, consular officers cooperate with the Department of Commerce.

Consular officers also cooperate with the Department of Agriculture in the introduction of new and valuable plants; with the Department of Labor in reporting on matters connected with immigration and on labor conditions in their district; with the Department of the Interior by reporting on mining, education, conservation, and reclamation; and in fact with all other Departments of the Government along many important lines.

VICE CONSULS

Vice consuls are consular officers subordinate to consuls general or consuls, and perform consular duties within the limits of their consulates at the same or at different points and places from those at which their principals are located, except that when they take charge of a consulate general or a consulate during the absence of the principal officer they are regarded as substitute officers. They perform such duties of the consular offices to which they may be assigned as are described in the Consular Regulations and Laws of the United States, and which they may be directed to perform by the principal officer under whom they serve.

There are two categories of vice consuls—those of career who have passed the prescribed examinations and are Foreign Service officers; and vice consuls not of career who are appointed from the clerical personnel without examination, by the Secretary of State, when a need for an additional officer exists at a post and a career officer is not available. Such vice consuls, however, are not eligible for appointment as Foreign Service officers until they have passed the usual examination.

During the absence of the principal officer from his post either a career or a noncareer vice consul may be placed in charge and his compensation, if not already equal to one-half the salary of the principal officer, will be increased to that figure while he remains in charge.

CONSULAR AGENTS

A consular agent is an officer subordinate to a consul general or a consul, exercising similar, but limited, powers at a place different from that at which the consulate general or consulate is situated. He acts entirely under the direction of his principal, and is usually a local business man. His compensation is derived from fees collected for official services, one-half of which he may retain, not to exceed in any case $1,000 a year. He pays the rent of his office and may engage in private business. The Government furnishes him with such forms, record books, stationery, and similar articles required for his official use.

LANGUAGE STUDENTS

Selection will be made annually of a few officers, from among new appointees in the Foreign Service who have shown especial aptitude for acquiring languages and who possess the other necessary qualifications, for assignment to China, Japan, and Turkey, where in addition to learning and performing the usual diplomatic and consular duties, they will be expected to acquire familiarity with the native language and the laws, customs, history, and race psychology of the people with a view to serving for the most part in the country of their assignment. Officers selected for these assignments may receive in addition to their salaries an allowance for language tuition and may be provided with quarters. This is one of the most attractive fields of activity in the entire Foreign Service and offers unusual opportunities for rendering distinguished service to the Government and for advancement in the service.

CLERKS

Clerks are employed in the Foreign Service, and receive initial compensation from $1,500 to $2,000 a year. Compensation begins upon the date of departure for the post to which they are assigned. Transportation expenses are paid by the Government, under certain regulations.

Appointees are expected to remain in the service for at least two years, and their transportation expenses in returning to the United States in case of resignation are not payable unless they have served for that period. They are, furthermore, expected to accept such assignments or transfers as the department may deem desirable in the best interests of the service. No appointments can be considered for special countries, although a statement as to preferences of assignment is welcomed by the department.

In the case of men such appointments are restricted to those who are unmarried and without dependents, as it is now seldom found practicable to pay compensation in an amount sufficiently large to justify the appointment of married men, nor is the appropriation for transportation sufficient to permit the payment of transportation of wives and families of clerks in the Foreign Service.

The employment of citizens or subjects of foreign powers as clerks in the diplomatic branch of the Foreign Service, and in the consular branch where the salary is more than $1,000 per annum, is prohibited by law. Therefore, only American citizens are employed as clerks in the diplomatic branch, and in positions in the consular branch the salaries of which are more than $1,000. Preference is given to honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who possess the requisite qualifications.

Women are equally eligible with men for clerkships in the Foreign Service. However, the climatic and social conditions at many posts render it impossible for women to serve at them with satisfaction to themselves and advantage to the Government.

The duties of clerks consist of such routine work as may be assigned to them by the officers in charge. An idea of the scope of these duties may be gained from a perusal of the functions of secretaries and consular officers which are enumerated elsewhere in this publication. It is desirable that clerks should be stenographers and possess a knowledge of the language of the country in which they are to be employed.

It is the practice of the department to commission clerks as vice consuls only when a need exists at the office to which they are assigned, and not until they have served for a sufficient period to judge of their abilities and conduct and that they merit such recognition. Whenever clerks are commissioned as vice consuls not of career their duties do not change, and they are not eligible to promotion to the grade of Foreign Service officer without undergoing the usual examinations. A commission as vice consul not of career does not carry with it an increase in compensation.

No formal examination is required for appointment to a clerkship; the department, however, reserves the right to examine an applicant in any particular it may deem advisable.

No one who is under 21 or over 35 years of age or who is not in excellent physical condition will be considered for these positions. The department may require the applicant to undergo a physical examination.

Application blanks for clerical appointments may be obtained from the Office of Foreign Service Personnel, Department of State. For further information regarding applications for such appointments, see page 244.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Foreign Service officers are required to account for all fees which they collect, and the salary fixed by law or regulation constitutes their sole and only compensation, except as specially provided in the case of consular agents who are compensated by one-half of the fees collected by them not exceeding, in any case, $1,000 a year.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Within his discretion, the Secretary of State may grant Foreign Service officers leave of absence, for reasonable periods, in no case to exceed 60 days in one year, except that, when leave is granted with permission to visit the United States, the time actually and necessarily occupied in transit by the most direct route will be approved in addition to the 60 days.

TRAVELING EXPENSES

Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of State, the Government defrays the actual and necessary expenses of transportation, and subsistence up to $5 per day, of Foreign Service officers and clerks in missions and consulates and their families and effects in going to and returning from their posts or when traveling under orders, but makes no allowance for any expense incurred in connection with leaves of absence.

EFFICIENCY RECORDS

Though the scene of his activities may be far removed from the United States, a Foreign Service officer's work is nevertheless closely watched by the Department of State, and he is given every opportunity to prove his worth to the service and credit for all that he accomplishes. A detailed efficiency record is kept in the Department of State, based upon personal and official conduct, the manner in which he handles business intrusted to him, and his knowledge of the technique of Foreign Service administration. Furthermore, all missions and consulates are visited at intervals by an inspector who examines their condition and the administration thereof, reports fully thereon to the department, and gives officers counsel and advice.

EXECUTIVE ORDER OF APRIL 4, 1924

The following regulations are hereby prescribed for the guidance of the representatives of the Government of the United States in foreign countries with a view to giving unified direction to their activities in behalf of the promotion and protection of the commercial and other interests of the United States, insuring effective cooperation, and encouraging economy in administration.

Whenever representatives of the Department of State and other departments of the Government of the United States are stationed in the same city in a foreign country they will meet in conference at least fortnightly under such arrangements as may be made by the chief diplomatic officer or, at posts where there is no diplomatic officer, by the ranking consular or other officer.

It shall be the purpose of such conferences to secure a free interchange of all information bearing upon the promotion and protection of American interests.

It shall be the duty of all officers to furnish in the most expeditious manner, without further reference, all economic and trade information requested by the ranking officers in the service of other departments of the Government assigned to the same territory: Provided, That where such compliance would be incompatible with the public interest or where the collection of such information requires research of such exhaustive character that the question of interference with regular duties arises, decision as to compliance shall be referred to the chief diplomatic officer or to his designated representative or, in the absence of such officers, to the supervising consular officer in the said jurisdiction. All failures to provide information requested as hereinbefore set forth shall be reported immediately by cable to the departments having jurisdiction over the officers concerned.

With a view to eliminating unnecessary duplication of work, officers in the same jurisdiction shall exchange at least fortnightly a complete inventory of all economic and trade reports in preparation or in contemplation.

Copies of all economic and trade reports prepared by consular or other foreign representatives shall be filed in the appropriate embassy or legation of the United States or, where no such office exists, in the consulate general and shall be available to the ranking foreign representatives of all departments of the Government. Extra copies shall be supplied upon request by the officer making the report.

The customary channel of communication between consular officers and officers of other departments in the foreign field shall be through the supervising consul general but in urgent cases or those involving minor transactions such communications may be made direct: Provided, That copies of all written communications thereof are simultaneously furnished to the consul general for his information. It shall be the duty of supervising consuls general to expedite intercommunication and exchange of material between the consular service and all other foreign representatives of the United States.

Upon the arrival of a representative of any department of the Government of the United States in any foreign territory in which there is an embassy, legation or consulate general, for the purpose of special investigation, he shall at once notify the head of the diplomatic mission of his arrival and the purpose of his visit and it shall be the duty of said officer or of his designated representative, or in the absence of such officer, then the supervising consular officer, to notify, when not incompatible with the public interest, all other representatives of the Government of the United States in that territory of the arrival and the purpose of the visit, and to take such steps as may be appropriate to assist in the accomplishment of the object of the visit without needless duplication of work.

In all cases of collaboration, or where material supplied by one officer is utilized by another, full credit therefor shall be given.

CALVIN COOLIDGE.

XXXVIII. INTERNATIONAL TRIBUNALS OF EGYPT

In 1876, as the result of negotiations between the Ottoman and Egyptian Governments and the various Christian powers having representatives at Cairo, certain courts were created in Egypt for the trial of civil and commercial causes arising between natives and foreigners of different nationality, as well as all questions of real estate between any person and suits of foreigners against the Egyptian Government and members of the Khedival family. These mixed tribunals, in civil matters within their exclusive jurisdiction, superseded the consular courts. A mixed tribunal consists of five judges, three of whom are foreigners and two natives. The foreign judges are appointed by the Khedive on the recommendation of the great powers, each of which is represented by from one to three judges. There are three tribunals of original jurisdiction (first instance), one each at Cairo, Alexandria, and Mansura, and a court of appeals at Alexandria. The United States is represented in these courts by the following judges:

Court of appeals.—Jasper Yeates Brinton, of Pennsylvania (appointed 1921).

Court of first instance.—Pierre Crabités, of Louisiana (appointed 1911); Robert Llewellyn Henry, of Louisiana (appointed 1924).
